Chevalier du Grand Robert (CGR) is an exploration of French viticulture and represents some of the most popular Old World varietals and blends. This brand was developed for experienced French wine drinkers but also serves as a perfect entry-point for those seeking to learn about the regions and terroirs for which the French have become famous.

2019 • HAUT-MÉDOC

Type: Red Blend
Origin/Appellation: France / AOC Haut-Médoc
Varietal(s): 70% Merlot, 30% Cabernet Sauvignon
Alcohol: 12.5%
Acidity: 4.41 g/L
Residual Sugar: 0%

Wine Story
The Haut-Médoc appellation makes up roughly two-thirds of Bordeaux's greater Médoc district, located in southwestern France on the left bank of the Gironde estuary.

Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot are the region’s dominant grape varietals, and this 2019 Chevalier du Grand Robert beautifully presents this region's iconic blend by offering a rich and supple drinking experience.

Tasting Notes
Ruby red in color with ripe, red fruits and discreet smoke on the nose, black currant and cherry on the palate, and a complex, well-structured finish.

Pairings
Enjoy with flame-grilled, fatty beef including rib eyes or burgers, slow-cooked stews, sautéed wild mushrooms, and rich, chocolate desserts.

Key Features
Grand Vin de Bordeaux for Haut-Médoc

Awards
Tastings.com – Cellar Selection, Silver Medal, Highly Recommended